

Equine Cultures in Transition 22 – 24 June 2021

PAST; PRESENT AND FUTURE CHALLENGES

Zoom-link for conference: <https://slu-se.zoom.us/j/67143266808>

Tuesday 22th June
11.00-11.30	Conference opening
11.30-11.50	Keynote, Interspecies relationships in horse/human tourism - Kate Dashper
11.50-12.00	BREAK
12.00-12.20	Keynote, Equine facilitated therapy – health promoting encounters with daring and compassion - Tobba Therkildsen Sudmann
12.20-12.40	Discussion in breakout groups
12.40-12.50	Summon up questions from breakout groups
12.50-13.40	LONG BREAK
Parallel session 1 13.40-14.40	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Charlotte Lundgren	WORKSHOP LITERATURE Chair: Lena Manderstedt	ART Chair: Crispin Johannessen	EAA Chair: Nina Ekholm Fry
	1. The double-sided nature of lifestyle-oriented work in the Swedish equine industry - Åsa Bergman Bruhn 2. Investigating equine daily spending and use values –competition vs. leisure - Tobias Heldt 3. Multispecies methods in immersive ethnography: the working cowhorse - Andrea Petitt	1. In the Company of Horses – Girlhood in Pia Hagmar’s Series about Klara - Ann-Sofie Persson et al 2. Intersectional Perspectives on Horse Stories. Pia Hagmar’s Series on Millan - Helen Asklund et al 3. Riders as Readers. A Pilot Study on the Horse Story Genre and its Readers - Lena Manderstedt et al	1. Past, Present and Future Ways of Seeing Horses – Crispin Johannessen 2. The difference between art and the art of riding - Lena Oja 3. “Between images and fairy-tale: prescriptive and coercive visions on animality in Crin Blanc ” - Bianca Friedman	1. Equine-Assisted Social Work (EASW) - Social Relation and Emotional Work theory provide access to an elusive form of tacit knowledge - Catharina Carlsson 2. Risk evaluation of equine assisted interventions – a checklist - Henrik Lerner 3. Equine assisted therapies and activities in Sweden – availability and sustainability - Petra Andersson

14.40-14.50	BREAK
Parallel session 2 14.50-15.50	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Oskar Solenes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Having a voice in the stable – a conditional right for young riders? - Therese Waerner 2. Swedish pony riding schools, ideology and solidarity, then and now, TPK – a case - Annika Rosén 3. The Swedish riding school: a social arena for young riders – Gabriella Torell Palmquist 	HISTORY Chair: Susanna Hedenborg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. An issue of “passability”: Veterinary- and Horse Activity at a Swedish Hussar Regiment (Livregementets husarer) in the late 19th Century Sweden - Victoria Pihlgren 2. "To Cure and not to Kill" - Major-General Sir John Moore, The Royal Army Veterinary Corps, and the Disposal of Horses on Demobilization, 1918-1919 - Jane Flynn 3. Slavery of the Draught: Trading Horses and Sugar in the Eighteenth-Century Atlantic World - Charlotte Carrington-Farmer 	ETHICS Chair: Petra Andersson <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. “You can’t just keep her alive for yourself”: exploring notions of selfish anthropomorphism, egomorphism and entangled empathy in caring for ‘Psyche’ at the end, and not quite the end of her life. - Samantha Hurn 2. The Future of Horses’ Welfare and Wellbeing in the Global North: Enforcement and Prevention – Kendra Coulter 3. The use of horses in antibody production: an Equine history of modern medicine - Ana Lucia Camphora 	EAA Chair: Guro Fiskergård Werner <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Integrative Model of Human-Animal Interactions applied to Horse-Assisted Therapy - Charlene Leconstant & Elisabeth Spitz 2. Able to Ride – horse related sports and leisure activities among persons with intellectual disabilities - Marie Gustavsson & Charlotte Lundgren 3. Can equine-assisted activities benefit people living with dementia: Two case study examples - Alison Rood
15.50-15.55	BREAK
15.55-16.20	Discussion in breakout groups
16.20-16.30	Summon up questions from breakout groups

Wednesday 23th June
11.00-11.10	Start up the day
11.10-11.30	Keynote, Equestrian coaching in crisis: meeting the needs and expectations of today's riders - Sue Halden Brown
11.30-11.40	BREAK
Parallel session 3 11.40-12.40	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Annæ Buchmann <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. From Outlaw to Athlete: Emic Perceptions on Human - Horse Relations in American Rodeo - Evelien Deelen 2. Ecce Equus! A Study of Egalitarian Equine Communities' Acknowledgement of the Horse as Subject – Nicole Pergament Crona 3. Horses' emotional work – 'miracles of attunement' - Anita Maurstad 	HISTORY Chair: Susanna Hedenborg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Equestrianism and violence(s): evolution and situation of equestrian practices in France from the perspective of the civilization process - Vanina Deneux - Le Barh & Patrice Régnier 2. Hippomania! Horses in everyday life in ancient Greece - Eva Minten 3. The China ceremony - The horse as symbol of a country - Kari Lawe 	WORKSHOP IN PEDAGOGICS Zoom-link for workshop: https://slu-se.zoom.us/j/61098897074 Coaching as the catalyst for change in equestrian education - Sue Halden Brown
12.40-12.45	BREAK
12.45-13.05	Discussion in breakout groups
13.05-13.15	Summon up questions from breakout groups
13.15-14.00	LONG BREAK
14.00-14.20	Keynote, A strong mind as a vehicle for change - Inga Wolframm
14.20-14.30	BREAK

Parallel session 4 14.30-15.30	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Lovisa Broms <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. (Re)turning to horses. Retro-innovation for small-scale and regenerative farming - Wijnand Boonstra 2. Perspectives on Free-Roaming Horses in the United States: Social, Economic, and Environmental Intersections – Nina Ekholm Fry 3. Agents of sustainability: How horses and people co-create and enact visions of the good life - Carrienne Wallace & Helen Wadham 	ETHICS Chair: Petra Andersson <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why Do People Own Horses: A theory of horse ownership - Darcy Bornemann 2. A culture clash: the complex welfare implications which have arisen from our changing relationships with leisure horses - Tamzin Furtado 3. Caring for the Older Horse: A Conceptual Model of Owner Decision Making - Rebecka Smith 	PEDAGOGICS Chair: Gabriella Torell Palmquist <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. “Horse Mumy”. The role of the “motherhood” on women relations with horses in the sociozoological researche (Poland 2018-2020) - Magdalena Anita Gajewska 2. Human-horse interactions: a high potentiality of possibilities - Patrice Regnier 3. “Preschoolers, ponies and professionals - Service providers view on contextual conditions for equine-assisted therapy (EAT)” - Guro Fiskergård Werner & Oskar Solenes
15.30-15.40	BREAK
15.40-16.00	Discussion in breakout groups
16.00-16.30	Summon up questions from breakout groups

Thursday 24 th June
11.00-11.10	Start up the day
Parallel session 5 11.10 - 12.10	HISTORY Chair: Susanna Hedenborg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Agency as interspecies, collective and embedded endeavour: Ponies and people in northern England 1916-1950 - Helen Wadham The tradition of horse-breaking in Hungary - Gergely Lajkó 	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Susanne Lundesjö Kvart <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Improving work environment and safety within the Swedish equine sector through novel methods and tools - Cecilia Lindahl Academisation of equitation in Sweden - art, biology, or sports? - Ulrika Alm Bergvall & Ulla Ekström von Essen Equestrianism, Consultant Skills and Competent Guidance - Helena Innergård 	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Annika Rosén <ol style="list-style-type: none"> “I hope you have learned your lesson” - Emotions in Emergency Preparedness and Evacuation - Annæ Buchmann Horse Riding as Recreation in the Aftermath of Covid-19 in Latvia - Anastasija Ropa Horse keeping in transforming cultural landscapes: searching for the roots to build a sustainable future – Monica Hammer
12.10-12.20	BREAK
Parallel session 6 12.20-13.20	ART Chair: Helen Wadham <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Using Knowledge in Horse and Human Affiliative Ethology to Improve Horse-Human Relationships: Analysis of Affiliative Behaviors in over 600 horses and Overlaps with Human Social Bonding Behaviors - Emily Kieson Rhythms of Relating – A Common Window of Rhythm for Horses and Humans? - Katarina Felicia Lundgren On centauring - Marie Fahlin 	MODERN LIFESTYLE Chair: Therese Waerner <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The challenge of making knowledge about horses visible on the internet - Mia Hellström Equine Cultures Online – A study about the Swedish Equestrian Federation and social media - Lovisa Broms Encountering police horses in relational networks of memory - Nora Schuurman 	ETHICS Chair: Petra Andersson <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Social Ethical Dilemmas Relating to Euthanasia of the Unwanted Horse in the United Kingdom - Charlotte Brigden & Bethany Winrow Ethical aspects of the animal-human relationship for sports horses: A new way forward - Hayley Wild The Good Life? A phenomenological exploration of sustainability in the English speaking horse industry - Debbie Busby

13.20 - 14.10	LONG BREAK
Parallel session 7 14.10-15.10	HISTORY Chair: Susanna Hedenborg <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The horse as a “sentient being”: a cross cultural perspective from Tibet to Argentina - Yancen Diemberger 2. “Joining Up: exhibiting the history of equines in Colorado one critical community engagement at a time” - Tamar McKee 3. HORSES FOR POLAND. Narratives about UNRRA horses and its educational potential - Inger Almström 	PEDAGOGICS Chair: Gabriella Torell Palmquist <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Teaching equestrian feel in a changing world - Susanne Lundesjö Kwart 2. The interaction between rider, horse and equestrian trainer – a challenging puzzle - Mari Zetterqvist Blokhuis 3. The effect of rider asymmetry on gait performance in Icelandic horses - Joanna Sätter 	ETHICS Chair: Nina Käsälää <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Zoocialization in Practice: Visual tidbits from the field - Keri Brandt-Off & Andrea Petitt 2. Beyond abolitionism: for a caring account of horse-human relations - Maude Ouellette-Dubé 3. What our horses can('t) do for us: analysis of discourses and practices in equine-assisted therapies in Brazil - Miriam Adelman
15.10-15.20	BREAK
15.20-15.50	"Round table" Chair: Lynda Birke “How horses shape academic lives and research”
15.50-16.10	Discussion in breakout groups
16.10-16.30	Summon up in panel discussion, What do you bring home? Announcement of Solidarity prize End of conference		