Educational Lunch seminar In English

Active learning classrooms

February 27th 12.00-13.00

All teachers and education-related staff are invited to the inspiring pedagogical seminars. Free lunch will be provided from 11.30h to those who register.

The development of the physical and digital learning environments of Swedish universities has evolved. However, we must continue to ask ourselves: Have the new teaching environments really affected us to become more activating when we teach?

Tomas Grysell

FD, Director of the Educational Development and Interactive Learning Unit (PIL), University of Gothenburg.
